Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Listed Madam Azita Pattle Brown, our guest singer, will appear at the Y. W. C. A. May 18. Keep the date! The address of Miss Mary G. Evans on "Service and its Joy" and at the Association meeting Thursday evening, was a wonderful inspiration to those who heard it.

With the reports given at this meeting our 1917 budget campaign has about reached the three thousand dollar ($3,000.00) mark. Everyone is jubilant over the splendid work done by our campaign workers.

We are still working and hope to report having reached our $5,000 goal at an early date.

The "Modern Priscilla," a new club of high school girls under the direction of Miss Lillian Vanderburg and Miss Verbena Brown, enjoyed a great time in an indoor picnic given in our gymnasium Saturday afternoon. The girls were very attractive in their picnic costumes. Everyone had a jolly good time at this first picnic of the season. All success to the Modern Priscilla!

A bright and happy bunch of "We Be Girls" under Miss Miriam Curtis help keep things lively at the Association on Saturday afternoon. They are looking forward with much enthusiasm to the debate to be held next Saturday. Miss Marie Gossin has become a popular leader among the younger girls on Saturdays.

Mrs. C. E. Robinson and Mrs. Howard were valuable chaperones at recreation hours on Saturday evening. Recreation evenings become more and more popular among the young men and women.

"Frisbie" swimming and gardening clubs are now being formed among the Association girls.

Dr. Wm. L. Perry gave an interesting talk at Vesper Sunday afternoon. Our Wednesday prayer group and Bible Class has become a great power and strength to our work.

Dr. William Knight has carefully satisfied over 1,000 people in the year 1916, who had trouble with their eyes. They had their eyes tested and glasses fitted at 2335 Market St.

Evil Speaking

By REV. JAMES M. GRAY, D.D.
Dean of Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—Speak not evil one of another, brother—James 3:11

Evil speaking has been a retaining offense in every age. It was for this cause that God gave up the heaven to a republic in 1861.

It was for this cause that God gave up the heaven to a republic in 1861. It was for this cause that God gave up the heaven to a republic in 1861. It was for this cause that God gave up the heaven to a republic in 1861. It was for this cause that God gave up the heaven to a republic in 1861.

The church at Corinth was full of evil speaking. There were many who were speaking evil of one another. Paul saying to the church at Corinth: "You are full of evil speaking."

There are some things which are evil speaking. There are some things which are evil speaking. There are some things which are evil speaking. There are some things which are evil speaking.

One would think it would be a good thing to speak evil of one another.
But it is not. It is not a good thing to speak evil of one another.

And then there is the other thought.
That when we search into the corners of our hearts and find out that we are evil speaking, we should be ashamed.

Keeping the Balance.
Of course there is a prudent observance of each other's conduct which should be practiced by Christians. In other words, there may be a useful impression to each other of what we have seen and known, not what we have heard or guessed. For self-defense, for the sake of justice, for the love of others, it may be necessary to proclaim our testimony. But this is not speaking evil of one another for it is done with an honest purpose and a harmless aim.

As William Cullen Bryant says:
Dear side of mutual respect here,
The children of our fellow race, We lean on others as we walk,
And tread as the birds tread, This earth were but a weary place.

In vain, however, does the Christian preacher inveigh against a wrong thing, if he is not himself free from it.
One, except as he points out the power by which the one may be avoided and the other attained. That power is Jesus Christ. To the Christian, I, the truly regenerated man, there should be no envy in this. He should know that he is the servant of the Lord, the Spirit of the Lord who dwells within him, he will receive power to become a child of God in deed as well as in name.

And to the man who is not a Christian, the advice is practically the same. Let him accept Jesus Christ by faith as his Savior and confessor. Let him see the Lord, and he will discover that he is able not to offend him by evil speaking. Let him see the Lord, and his power as expressed in an evil tongue.

the Sunday School Course in the Moody Institute of Chicago
(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR APRIL 22

JESUS ANOINTED AT BETHANY.

LESSON TEXT—John 12:1-11.
MEMORY TEXT—The bath Jesus what he could—Mk. 14:3.

This is a lesson of Jesus in the home. It occurred at the beginning of passion week. We have before us the master; the worker, Martha; the disciple, Mary; the witness, Lazarus; the traitor, Judas, and the people with him. An unconscious bit of wisdom fell from the lips of that good housewife who exclaimed, "How much better my neighbor's house look when I have my windows clean than when I am looking through the eyes of selfishness. Out of this lesson let us learn to look through unselfish eyes.
Luther Critchfield (rv. 148). It is the story before Jesus' last Passover.
The accounts of Matthew and Mark suggest it to have been within two days, because they mentioned the feast after telling of the conspiracy of the chief priests and elders with Judas, who came to his determination to betray him after the supper had given him on the occasion.

(1) The Value of Good Deeds. Jesus did not forget, in the supreme hour of his life, the persons whom he loved. To bring them some further spiritual gifts, he had come to their home in Bethany. Doubtless he also desired to perform his first miracle before them (John 4:46). Jesus was Very God of Very God, yet he was very much of a real man; therefore he also was very much of a real man, and he also was very much of a real man, and he also was very much of a real man.

(2) The Wealth of Good Deeds. Out of her love Mary expended $25, probably her whole treasure, in the purchase of this alabaster box, and put it together to use it upon him at the house of the anointed. We might think that she was calculating the cost of this gift. Love never estimates value.
Her deed proved a safer rule of conduct than the calculating prodigality of Judas and the other disciples (see Matt. 26:8). Such deeds are always looked upon with suspicion. The lesson text tells us that Jesus was not criticizing the actions of others. Mary at the bottom of their criticism, but good deeds are unimportant, for we know that the "house was filled with odor."

(3) A Standard of Good Deeds (Mark 14:8). "She did what she could." This is the standard of good deeds, a memorial to her (Mark 14:9).
A large number of people who never give of their own to the poor nor to the kingdom of God are willing to criticize others who do give out of the gratitude of their loving hearts.

(4) Graceful Commendation (rv.
7:13). Jesus praised where his disciples and Judas criticized. The poor they always had with them (Mark 14:7). This must have been a challenge that evidently they had not attended to the poor as they should.
Jesus told them frankly that whoever they do for him they must do speedily. Jesus' judgment upon Judas is a rebuke of the disciples; his praise is a rebuke of the world. The praise of his disciples is suggestive.
Upon Mary's act he bestowed the highest possible praise. "She hath done what she could." This is all that is asked of anyone (Isa. 60:12). Such commendation as Jesus bestowed upon Mary he bestowed upon no other, and his wonderful predictions concerning her (Matt. 26:13) have been literally fulfilled. Jesus' judgment upon Mary is also suggestive. He singled her out for praise. He approved her works as being good, and he interpreted her innermost purpose in the act which she had performed. This outward act was literally the pouring out of her heart's adoration and worship.
Martha was in part taken up with the thought of her own service.
Lazarus was in part taken up with the enjoyment of the presence of Jesus, but Mary was wholly taken up with Jesus himself. She was not concerned with
"wherever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also which she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her" (Matt.
26:13). The judgment of Jesus, was strong (Matt. 26:14)—and buried at once to the enemies of Jesus to show that he was not a false prophet.
He takes will be in part taken up with the thought of her own service.
Lazarus was in part taken up with the
enjoyment of the presence of Jesus, but Mary was wholly taken up with Jesus
throughout the whole world, this
spoken of for a memorial of her" (Matt.
26:13). The judgment of Jesus, was
at once to the enemies of Jesus to show that he was not a false prophet.
